

Community College Transfer Agreements

Eastern Michigan University has more community college partnerships than any other university in Michigan.

EMU has 144 articulation agreements with 20 different community colleges spanning dozens of fields.

Of those agreements,

- 131 are academic program agreements;
- 3 are honors agreements; and,
- 10 are reverse transfer agreements (which outline the process for a student who transferred to Eastern from a community college to earn an associate's degree from the community college based on additional coursework taken at EMU)

EMU's top community college partners are

- Washtenaw Community College (32 agreements)
- Henry Ford College (21 agreements)
- Macomb Community College (11 agreements)
- Schoolcraft College (13 agreements)
- Monroe Community College (14 agreements)
- Oakland Community College (9 agreements)
- Wayne County Community College District (6 agreements)
- Jackson Community College (6 agreements)
- Eastern Michigan University also has articulation agreements with community colleges in Ohio, which helps attract out-of-state students to our state
