

Any Time, Any Place,
Any Way, Any Pace

Allowing Innovative districts the opportunity to break the chains of seat time

Variables

- Time
- Curriculum
- Learning
- We have batched students by age, moved them at a set pace, resulting in variations in learning.
- Learning must become the constant.

21st Century students

- Easy access to information
- Need to create or produce
- Project based learning
- Learning is no longer restricted to a place and time

Removing Seat Time

- Time spent is often equated to learning
- Measuring competency or proficiency replaces measuring time spent
- Barriers created by current rules all based upon seat time

The Hamilton Community

- Schools Experience
  - Current initiatives
- Barriers to vision created by seat time
- Other barriers

Technical Support for Any

➤ Time Any Portability of credits Place learning

➤ Credentialing experiences and proficiencies